

The Young Greek Australian HERMES

Volume I Issue 6 28/03/2010

First and foremost I would like to send a big hello out to all Hermes readers on behalf of CUGA, it's always great to see young Hellenes getting together and celebrating our unique cultural identity! Unity despite barriers of time and distance is an achievement to be celebrated. In a few short words I hope to shed some light on CUGA and share with you our identity and what we do.

CUGA stands for Combined Universities Greek Association and is largely directed by the Presidents and Vice-Presidents of our various independent university Hellenic societies. These are the Sydney University Greek Association (SUGS), the Hellenic Society of UNSW (Hellsoc), UTS Hellenic and the Macquarie University Greek Association (MUGA).

We hold several functions each on behalf of our own societies, and on top of that several times a year we come together as CUGA to hold MASSIVE events. We host students, friends and fellow Hellenes from every university and from all over the state. We've all heard of the 4 day long CUGA Ski Trip and the CUGA

Cruise. Co-ordinating over 800 Greeks on a boat or 250 Greeks at the snowfields, the logistics involved, is a feat only achieved by the very fact that CUGA is an organisation characterised by trust, friendship and a co-operative spirit of brotherhood.

CUGA's goals are the same as NUGAS' goals; to celebrate our Hellenism through community involvement and insane student events.

Until next time, Shine on Greek Australia!
